Junior Counselor Description

Description/Responsibilities

Position Description

A Junior Counselor is a leader, aged 13 – 15, who is selected to participate in the Junior Counselor program. They also assist the summer camp staff with various activities and duties of the daily camp schedule as well as assisting the Celebration of Summer, all city camp events.

Position Supervisors

Junior Counselors are supervised by the following: Counselors, Unit Leaders, and Camp Director. Junior Counselors are not solely responsible for supervision of the campers; they are present to assist the camp staff and learn how to supervise.

Responsibilities

1. To attend all phases of training
2. Meet new ideas/activities with an open mind, accept constructive feedback, and make positive changes.
3. Participates in activities and are involved with the children and counselors.
4. Learn and accept all City of Charleston year round and summer camp policies.
5. To respect all City of Charleston property and equipment.
6. To assist in the creation and maintenance of a physically and emotionally safe environment for all participants.
7. To follow the set schedule for service, Monday – Friday.
8. To participate fully in weekly meetings, reviews, and debriefs for the junior counselor program.
9. To assist with preparation, execution, and clean-up of camp programs and activities as assigned, including lunch time. For those camps who attend pools, it is expected that the junior counselor assists with head count and supervision of campers during swim time.
10. To attend scheduled sessions and participate in all camp activities unless excused by prior arrangement. Please communicate these arrangements or conflicts to your supervisors as soon as possible.
11. Communicate issues/concerns in regards to accident and incidents to supervisors.
12. Be a good role model to the younger campers.
13. Teach or lead designated activities/programs on a weekly/daily basis as described in the program.

Not Your Responsibility

1. Disciplining a camper
2. Taking a child alone into a bathroom
3. Providing first aid/CPR to a child (unless you are certified by the American Red Cross and have cleared it with the recreation department)
4. Supervising a group of children alone
5. Writing up a camper or discussing issues with parents or your friends and family.

Dress Code

All Junior Counselors will wear shirts designating them as Junior Counselors. All Junior Counselors are expected to wear closed toed shoes to protect their feet during participation in all camp activities. Appropriate water clothing will be ok for swimming activities.

Discipline

There exists a mutual understanding that you were accepted into the Junior Counselor Leadership program and will be held to the City of Charleston Recreation Department standard. You will be expected to assist camp staff and not need an excessive amount of corrections or reprimands. The program wants to provide an opportunity to learn and grow for youth. However, instances of inappropriate conduct, excessive corrections or reprimands, or failure to follow city policies will not be tolerated. If need be, per the Camp Director's discretion, individuals will be excused from the program.

Absenteeism

If the Junior Counselor needs to make a schedule change or be absent, please contact your site coordinator. However, if selected and when scheduled for a two week block, it is expected much like work that you are able to fulfill your selected weeks. As a selected Junior Counselor, if you need a day off, it will be your responsibility (not your parents) to communicate this to the camp director in advance.

Please answer the following questions to the best of your ability.

1. What are you expecting to learn by participating in the Junior Counselor Leadership Program?
2. As a role model, what characteristics would you bring each day to camp that you feel would make a difference in the lives of the children in your group? Why is this important?
3. As a Junior Counselor, what goals would you set for your group of campers and how do you plan on helping achieve those goals?

Applicants are NOT guaranteed a spot in the program. An interview or multiple interviews may be required before JCIT participants are chosen. The interviews will be held during the month of April at the individual sites at their scheduled times. Applicants will be selected by May 1st. If selected, a non-refundable deposit of $50 per session will be due by May 19th, 2017. The remaining balance will be due one week before each session they are assigned to work.

The total fee for the Bees Landing, James Island, and Tiedemann Park summer day camps is $100 for City residents or $125 for Non-City residents per child per session. The fee for the Hazel Parker summer half-day camp will be $50 for City residents or $75 for Non-City residents per child per session. All fees are non-refundable as you will be taking a spot that may not be able to be filled.
